From: Campus Safety Magazine
To: Reid, Mike (SHF)
Subject: Introducing the 2019 Director of the Year Finalists!
Date: Tuesday, February 12, 2019 7:02:34 AM

This message is from outside the City email system. Do not open links or attachments from untrusted sources.

Trouble viewing this email? View it here.

CS Logo

February 12, 2019

Prepare to Be Impressed: Director of the Year Finalists Shine Brighter than Ever

Prepare to Be Impressed: Director of the Year Finalists Shine Brighter than Ever

Congratulations to the much-deserving group of campus security, law enforcement and emergency management professionals who are this year's Director of the Year finalists.

Here's a Bullying Prevention Strategy That Actually Works

This non-punitive bullying prevention program has shown to reduce the frequency of bullying in 88 percent of cases.

Univ. of Mich. Housing Staff Can't Censor Speech on Dorm Doors

The new policy comes after a watchdog group that supports free speech on college campuses filed a lawsuit against the university.

Advertisement

Advertisement

Advertisement

Advertisement

Report: K-12 Schools Experienced 122 Cyber Attacks in 2018

A new report from the K-12 Cybersecurity Resource Center says a U.S. school district falls victim to a cyber attack as often as every three days.

Student Vaping Sanctions Up 519% in Conn. Schools

A report from the state's Department of Education found student sanctions associated with vaping increased from 349 to 2,160.

Kingdom Prep Headmaster Arrested on Suspicion of Child Molestation

---

‘Alyssa’s Law’ to Require Silent Panic Alarms in All N.J. Public Schools

The newly signed law is named after Alyssa Alhadeff, a New Jersey native who was killed in the Marjory Stoneman Douglas shooting.

RESOURCE

Access Control in Higher Education: Technology Report

HID Global and Genetec commissioned a survey to provide insights about access control in the higher education market. This report will highlight the results of that survey with additional commentary.

WEBCAST

Healthcare Facility Security Planning for Patient Surge Events

This presentation will detail security sensitive areas common to most healthcare facilities and the challenges faced when a public health emergency occurs resulting in a sudden influx of people requiring emergency treatment, also known as a patient surge event.

Announcing the 6th Annual Campus Safety Conference Dates and Locations

---

This email was sent to mike.reid@sfgov.org by Campus Safety
111 Speen St Framingham, MA 01701

Manage your email subscriptions
Unsubscribe from ALL